Announcement-1

Information Technology Park in Ramathapuram and Cuddalore Districts

In order to increase the investment made by IT/ITES companies in Tamil Nadu and based on the demand of IT companies, action will be pursued accordingly to explore the possibility of setting up of Information Technology Parks in Ramanathapuram and Cuddalore Districts.

Announcement-2

Centre of Excellence of FinTech in Chennai

To create competition, innovation and productivity in Financial sector and improve economy, a Centre of Excellence ofFinTech will be established in Chennai. This FinTech will make Digitising money as well as Monetising Data.

This FinTech will assist all business needs especially for the Economical growth of Small, Medium Entreprises and for creating employment.

This Centre of Excellence for FinTech will be established at Chennai with the investment of □ 5.75 crore, □ 5.75 crore and □ 11.50 crore by Central Government State Government and Venture Capital fund respectively.

Announcement–3

CM Dash Board

The CM Dash Board displays the key performance indicators of various Government Departments schemes as an Investment plan. All important Department performance can be viewed by the Hon'ble Chief Minister and other Hon'ble Ministers through this. Through this scheme, all Hon'ble Ministers and Department Secretaries can execute the requests that are placed as its objective. This will be implemented at a cost of Rs.122 lakh.

Announcement–4

ELCOT e-Market

"ELCOT e-Market" is providing IT hardware, Software and services to all Government Departments through online. Using this Online Portal, Government departments can select the items and services of the ELCOT Registered Venders, Government Departments can get the details of there items, compare the same and select the items based on the specification details and price. They can also download the proforma Invoice.

Using this ELCOT e-Market, Government departments and registered Venders will get the services on par with the services being offered by leading e-commerce companies. This project will be implemented by ELCOT at a cost of ☐ 30 lakh.

Announcement – 5

Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Internet of Things (IoT) - Tech Forum

As the companies need to develop innovative technology in the field of Information & Computer Technology (ICT) in Tamil Nadu, a Tech Forum facility will be set-up by the Electronic Corporation of Tamil Nadu (ELCOT).

By creating this Tech Forum, Tamil Nadu will promote economic growth in the field of Artificial Intelligence (AI), Internet of Things (IoT), Machine Learning and Electronic Hardware Manufacturing in the State, besides creating more employment opportunities.

Announcement – 6

Providing all e-Services through Internet

At present e-Services are offered only through CSCs. To avail these services, Citizens have to come to Common Service Centres. Now, steps will be taken to provide additional services through online to Citizens. With this Facility Citizens can avail these services from anywhere anytime (24x7).

Announcement-7

Online Tamil Computing Course

In today's Technological era, it has become imperative to bring the Tamil language into the Computer. Taking this into consideration, Tamil Virtual Academy (TVA) will teach Diploma Course in Tamil Computing through Online. Through this, Students, Researchers and Tamil enthusiasts will be benefited. This subject will be created at a cost of Rs. 20 lakh.

Announcement-8

Technical Support to Government Departments

Information Technology acts as a backbone for better functioning of Government Departments. For this purpose, talented IT human resources are required. For implementing this, talented IT related human resources will be provided by Commissioner of e-Governance to those Government Departments who require IT related staff from "IT Cadre".

ANNOUNCEMENT – 9

Standardisation of District Websites

It is proposed to implement a standardized content management system for all District Websites. This scheme will be implemented through TNeGA.

ANNOUNCEMENT – 10

Security Auditing of all Government Department Websites

To safeguard the websites from cyber-attacks, security auditing of Government Departments websites at periodic interval is very much requires.

Hence it is proposed to implement Security Auditing of all Government Department Websites.

ANNOUNCEMENT – 11

Introduction of Over The Top (OTT) service through which TV Programmes desired by people can be viewed from anywhere in the world.

To the subscribers of the TACTV, an additional OTT (Over The Top) Service will be provided through which the desired TV programmes. Government Department programmes and other programmes can be given and watched from any where in the World through multiple devices like cloud Computing, Mobile, Tablet, Desktop Computers, Laptop. Initially , 50-100 TV channels will be given.